ABOUT THE COURSE

With tremendous developments in ICTs, the education system of today has shifted to technology-enabled learning (TEL). The optimal utilization of technological developments in education has multi-fold implications involving cost, access, equity, pedagogy and quality. As higher-education institutions (HEIs) adapts to the digitalisation, there comes lot of transparency, sharing of resources, flexibility, innovative practices and so on.

The Open Educational Resources (OER) movement has empowered educators to become more innovative in their pedagogical practices, through the openness and flexibility in educational resource use permitted by open licensing of materials. The term "OER" describes publicly accessible materials and resources for any user to use, re-mix, improve, and redistribute under some licenses. The significance of OER is due to the fact that they are inexpensive and freely adaptable.

Therefore, it becomes the dire need of the hour for every teacher to understand the ways and means of using OER in their teacher. Further, creation and dissemination of OER materials for the greater benefit of student community is yet another imperative learning for any teacher. This course aims at imparting knowledge and skills needed to leverage OER for a contemporary educational experience.

OBJECTIVES:

- Sensitise teachers on the vast pool of high-quality OER
- Facilitate right usage of OER
- Develop skills required for creating OER materials
