Vice-Chancellor Dr.Premavathy Vijayan gave the special address in front of the all alumnae which motivates the people gathered in the Thiruchitrambalam Auditorium.

Then the programme was extended with video presentation about memories of Actor Shivakumar. Taking a trip down the memory lane, Shivakumar spoke elaborately on his early life, the hardships he faced and his struggle to enter filmdom. "It's not that only those born with the silver spoon can make it big in life; if you have the determination and willpower to achieve, nothing is impossible," he said. For the versatile actor, the costliest miss was not being able to be a part of the school group photograph due to financial crunch. "After I became an actor, people would have photographed me innumerable times. But missing out a chance to be part of the school group photograph still lingers in my mind," he said, urging students to cherish every moment of college life. Recalling rich memories of acting with legends like MGR and Sivaji

Ganesan, Sivakumar said that as a youngster in the industry he learnt a lot from them. “Never miss out on a chance to move with great people. That will help you in the long run. Take their advice and be sincere in your work. It will definitely take you places,” he said. Sivakumar in his address spoke extensively on great leaders like Mahatma Gandhi, Bharathiar, Kamaraj and Periyar. His speech was not without a touch of humour. “I would have tied the nuptial knot with at least 150 women in films. But I have only one wife,” he said, as the audience broke into laughter. Sivakumar’s power point presentation gave a chance for the alumnae to know his talent in painting and Yoga.

Mrs.Lakshmikumari was felicitated with a shawl and Shivakumar gave art books to Chancellor as a token of love. Vice Chancellor felicitated the special guest Mr.P.C.Duraisamy and Mrs.P.C.Duraisami, Sakthi Masala Pvt limited.
