12.6. All Ph.D. scholars, irrespective of discipline, shall be required to train in teaching / education / pedagogy / writing related to their chosen Ph.D. subject during their doctoral period. Ph.D. scholars may also be assigned 4-6 hours per week of teaching / research assistantship for conducting tutorial or laboratory work and evaluations.

13. PART-I: PH.D EXAMINATION AND EVALUATION

13.1. Written examination-Papers I, II, III and IV

Paper I : Research Methodology – Common to candidates belonging to one or more departments. Credits 3+2 (Component I)

Paper II : Advanced Paper in the discipline – Common to all the candidates in a particular discipline. Credits 3+2 (Component II).

Paper III : Special Paper – Pertaining to the area of specialization chosen by the candidate in consultation with the Supervisor. Credits 4+2 (Component III).

Paper IV : Research and Publication Ethics (for scholars admitted to Ph.D both with and without M.Phil.) Credits 2.

The proposed additional 3 components namely :

Component I - 2 credits - Training in reputed research institutes / R&Ds / Centres within India or abroad after necessary approval from the authorities of the institution

Component II - 2 credits - Course on Biostatistics / SPSS / Research ethics / any research tool pertaining to the discipline of the Research scholar

Component III - 2 credits - Participation in Wet workshop related to the discipline of the research scholar

The 18 credits course work pattern will come into effect for candidates admitted from January 2023 session. The assessment for these 6 credits will be carried out by the department to be integrated into the syllabus of Course Work Paper I, II and III respectively.

For each course, 60% of marks would be allotted for the continuous internal evaluation / assessment (CIA) and the remaining 40% would be allotted for the comprehensive examination.

The following components shall be adopted for CIA for each paper

I	Two Tests (2 x 10)	20 Marks
II	Two Assignments (2 x 10)	20 Marks
III	Two Seminars (2 x 10)	20 Marks
	Total	60 Marks

CIA I for 100 marks full portion (Converted to 10 marks)

CIA II Training (for 10 marks)

The duration of examination and the maximum marks for each written paper shall be 3 hours and 100 marks respectively.

13.2. Passing minimum

The requirement for a candidate to be declared successful in the Part-I: Ph.D. course work examination shall be as follows:

- ★ A minimum of 55% in each course (both internal and external assessments put together).
- ★ The candidate who does not satisfy the above condition shall be declared as 'failed' in the particular paper(s)
- ★ A candidate shall be declared to have qualified for the Part-I: Ph.D. degree if she has passed all the written papers and successfully completed her research work. The results thus obtained shall also be classified.

13.3. Restriction in the number of chances

No candidate shall be permitted to reappear for the written papers more than twice (two occasions) or to re-submit a dissertation more than once.

13.4. Exemption for M.Phil. candidates for Part I Examination

Candidates who possess M.Phil. qualifications completed by regular mode in the same discipline / field of research are eligible for exemption from undergoing the written examinations of all the three papers except Paper 4 - Research and Publication Ethics. If the degrees are not in the same discipline, they are exempted only from Paper-I Research Methodology and shall undergo Paper-II and III, like other candidates.

Therefore, candidates who have joined Ph.D. (both Full time and Part time) from January, 2021 and onwards have to undergo Ph.D. Course Work Part 1. Paper 4 - Research and Publication Ethics.

14. Part-II : SUBMISSION OF SYNOPSIS AND THESIS

Each candidate shall be required to choose a Research problem and submit the thesis under the guidance of her Supervisor.

Not less than THREE months before the submission of the thesis, every candidate shall submit to the Controller of Examinations, through the Supervisor, a synopsis of the proposed thesis together with all relevant documents as in the check list and stating the title of the thesis to be presented in the prescribed application form along with the prescribed fee. The candidate shall inform the probable date of submission of her thesis in the application. The synopsis shall be submitted both in the form of hard and soft copy in CD. The hard copy should not exceed 20 printed pages (one side only of A4 size).

The synopsis should include the following components :

- a) Title of the thesis
- b) Brief description on the state-of-art of the research topic
- c) Definition of the problem
- d) Objectives and scope of research work
- e) Methodology
- f) Original contributions
- g) Papers published
- h) Conclusion and
- i) References

Not later than SIX MONTHS after the submission of the synopsis and after the expiry of the minimum period of research prescribed, every candidate shall submit prescribed application and THREE COPIES of thesis embodying the results of the research carried out by her. In addition, the thesis shall also be submitted in the form of soft copy in PDF format in a CD.

All Ph.D. scholars must publish at least TWO (2) research papers in UGC CARE journals (Group I or II) and make two paper presentations in conferences / seminars before the submission of the thesis for adjudication, and produce evidence for the same in the form of presentation certificates and reprints to be enclosed along with the thesis.

Before submitting the dissertation, the Ph.D. scholar shall make a draft thesis presentation before the Doctoral Committee which shall also be open to all faculty members and other research scholars / students.

The candidate can claim a Patent, if it is published or granted in lieu of the one of the indexed publications only if the first inventor is the Ph.D. candidate.

The scholars have to get their two publications scrutinized by competent authorities of the Institution (Asst.Librarian, HoD and Dean) and submit the certificate (Item No. 5 in the Check List - Appendix XIV).

As approved by the Academic Council of the Institution, every draft Ph.D. thesis shall be screened by using well developed software as provided by UGC / INFLIBNET to detect plagiarism and other forms of academic dishonesty. While submitting the thesis for evaluation, the thesis shall have an undertaking from the Research Scholar and a certificate from the Research Supervisor attesting to the originality of the work, vouching that there is no plagiarism and that the work has not been submitted for the award of any other degree/diploma of the same Institution where the work was carried out, or to any other Institution.

The title page of the thesis, cover and format should strictly confirm to the format of presentation as prescribed (Appendix-IV) and the thesis (all copies) should carry a declaration by the candidate (Appendix-V) and certificate (Appendix-VI) duly signed and issued by the Supervisor. The thesis should NOT be hard bound and it should have a thin and flexible cover.

No candidate shall ordinarily be permitted to submit the thesis after a period of FIVE YEARS in the case of full-time research scholars and SIX YEARS in the case of part-time research scholars; provided that the Institute may, for valid reasons and on the recommendations of her Supervisor, grant extension of time for not more than TWO YEARS in all, to the candidates. The candidate, who is not able to submit her thesis even after the grant of extension of TWO YEARS, shall apply for Re-registration.

The Ph.D. thesis / synopsis should be written in English (for subjects other than languages). However, the thesis may also be written in Tamil and submitted with prior permission.

Re-registration

If a candidate has not submitted the thesis within the stipulated period,

- (i) the candidate may re-register under the same Supervisor in the same topic
 - The candidate has to submit a requisition letter in the prescribed format through the Supervisor for re-registration with evidence for
 - a. Percentage of work yet to be completed
 - b. Date of submission of the thesis
 - The maximum period for re-registration is 2 years from the date mentioned in the application or approved by the Controller of Examinations and Vice Chancellor
 - On approval, the candidate has to pay an annual fee of ₹ 10,000/-.
- (ii) For re-registered candidates with change of Supervisor and / or area of research the required period would be similar to that of freshly registered candidates.

Re-admission

If the candidate does not submit the thesis within the stipulated period (period of study + extension + re-registration) and if the research scholar is willing to continue, she can be re-admitted. The re-admitted candidate will be treated as a newly admitted candidate and may be exempted from Part I Examination for Paper I and Paper II. She may be exempted from Paper - III (thesis paper) Examination, if her proposed thesis work is in the same specialization. The exemption requests submitted through proper channel is approved by the Vice Chancellor after placing it in RAC.

15. ADJUDICATION OF THE PH.D. THESIS

15.1. Panel of Examiners

After the submission of synopsis, the Supervisor is advised to submit the panel of TEN names for appointment of Examiners (3 International, 6 National) for the candidate in a sealed cover to the Controller of Examinations in the prescribed format.

Board of Examiners

Vice-Chancellor may appoint Board of Examiners for evaluation of the thesis consisting of the Supervisor as Convener and two other External Examiners i.e. one from India and one from outside India (Foreign Examiner) from the panel suggested by the Supervisor.

No close or immediate relative of the candidate / supervisor be appointed as an examiner.

15.2. Evaluation of thesis

- The thesis shall be referred to two examiners (one from India and another from abroad) nominated by the Vice Chancellor from the panel of examiners. The Vice Chancellor, if deemed it necessary, may also nominate the examiners from outside the panel
- Controller of Examinations shall take appropriate steps to receive the reports from the examiners as quickly as possible. The examiners shall send their willingness to evaluate the thesis within one month from the date of receipt of the synopsis. Two reminders of two weeks span can be sent. Beyond that an alternative examiner will be appointed
- The examiners shall send their evaluation report in the prescribed format within two months from the date of receipt of the thesis.

The examiners shall include in their report an overall assessment placing the thesis in any one of the following categories : (Appendix - VII)

- Recommend the acceptance of the thesis for the award of the Ph.D. degree in the present form and further based on the standard attained, classify the work as COMMENDED or HIGHLY COMMENDED
- Recommend the acceptance of the thesis. However, the scholar shall incorporate the corrections indicated in the detailed report and place the corrected copy to the Oral Examination Board but the corrected thesis need not be sent to the examiner
- Defer the recommendation at this stage and the scholar shall incorporate the suggested modifications in the thesis and the corrected thesis along with the scholar's clarifications shall be sent to the respective examiner
- Reject the thesis for the reasons set out in the detailed report classifying as NOT COMMENDED AND REJECTED
- The examiner shall also enclose a detailed report in about 200 to 300 words, indicating the standard attained, the nature of revision and specific reasons
- If both the examiners recommend the award of the degree, the thesis shall be provisionally accepted. Any minor revision, modification, etc., suggested by the examiners shall be carried out before the Oral Examination Board
- If any examiner recommends revision in the thesis, the scholar shall be permitted only once to revise and resubmit the thesis within six months, and the revised thesis shall be referred to the same examiner only in the situation such as
 - i. When the examiner recommends new experiments or major modification involving new methodology.

- ii. The examiner insists in sending the thesis back to the same examiner after revision for offering her / his final recommendation on the thesis which shall be only either for recommendation for the award or for rejection.
- If one examiner recommends the award of the degree while the other recommends rejection, then the thesis shall be referred to the third examiner to be nominated by the Vice Chancellor. If two of the three examiners recommend the award, the thesis shall be provisionally accepted. If two of the examiners recommend rejection, the thesis shall be rejected and the registration of the scholar shall stand cancelled
 - In case, the examiner does not insist to send the thesis back to her / him, the thesis shall be referred to the Doctoral Committee to ascertain the corrections carried out in the thesis as suggested by the examiner
 - Individual cases not covered by the above clauses shall be referred to the Vice Chancellor. If deemed fit, the Vice Chancellor shall refer to the Research Advisory Committee which in turn shall refer to the Board of Management, for necessary action.

15.3. Resubmission of the thesis

A candidate whose thesis has not been commended for the award of the degree may be permitted to re-submit it on a second occasion within a period of ONE YEAR from the date of declaration of the results with a specific statement from the candidate and the Supervisor about the additional research work conducted and the revision done in the thesis. The resubmitted thesis shall be referred to the same examiner who originally valued the thesis for Re-valuation.

15.4. Public viva-voce examination

An oral examination (viva-voce) is compulsory for Doctoral degree. Oral examination allows the examiners to,

- Examine the general field of the thesis
- Clarify any points of ambiguity
- Satisfy themselves that the thesis is the own work of the candidate
- Discuss the thesis in detail

Composition of Ph.D. Public Viva-Voce (Oral) Examination Board

- ★ CoE
- ★ Supervisor
- ★ Indian Examiner
- ★ Dean of School
- ★ HOD
- ★ Other faculty members/ researchers in that field
- The Oral examination shall be conducted within three months as "Open Defence Type" Examination. The circular for the same shall be communicated to the Director (R&D) / faculty members / research scholars/ other departments / other Institutions, atleast 15 days prior to the viva-voce Examination. A minimum of thirty members excluding Oral Examination Board members shall be present for the viva-voce Examination
- If the Oral Examination Board reports the performance of the scholar as "Not satisfactory" then she may opt to reappear for the Oral Examination at a later date (not later than six months from the date of the first Oral Examination). On the second occasion, the Oral Examination Board shall include one more expert nominated by the Vice Chancellor
- If the performance of the scholar in the Oral Examination in the second occasion also is reported to be "not satisfactory", the Vice Chancellor, if deems it necessary, shall refer the remarks of the Oral Examination Board, along with the thesis and comments of the Examiners, to a Committee constituted for this purpose and the decision of the Vice Chancellor shall be final

- On satisfactory completion of the viva-voce Examination, the scholar shall submit the corrected thesis in accordance with the format and specification prescribed, duly certified by the Supervisor and joint Supervisor, if applicable, that all the corrections have been incorporated in the thesis as suggested by the examiners, along with a soft copy of the thesis in CD, for Institute archives.

16. PUBLICATION OF THE THESIS

Papers arising out of the thesis may be published by the scholar and the Supervisor as and when the manuscripts are ready. However, the thesis as a whole can be published by the scholar / Supervisor with specific approval of the Vice Chancellor.

After successful completion of Ph.D. and declaration of the results, the Ph.D. thesis is deposited in the Shodhganga at INFLIBNET Centre, an institutional repository.

17. THE ACT OF PLAGIARISM

In the case of scholars who have committed the act of plagiarism, her thesis / degree shall be forfeited and her research registration shall be cancelled and also she shall be debarred to register for any other programme in the Institute.

The University Grants Commission has notified the Regulations (dated 23rd July 2018) on Promotion of Academic Integrity and Prevention of Plagiarism in Higher Educational Institutions. The Institute adopts these Regulations from the academic year 2018-19 to monitor, check, detect and take measures to curb Plagiarism in all research activities including Ph.D. research work.

18. POWER TO MODIFY

Notwithstanding all that has been stated above, the Board of Management has the right to modify any of the above regulation from time to time.

19. TRANSITORY PROVISION

These revised regulations shall come into effect from January 2023.
