REPORT ON QUIZ COMPETITION

On the 10th of January, 2024 (Wednesday), the Research and Development Cell organized the quiz on 'Research Publication and Ethics'. The post graduate students and research scholars from various faculties of Seven schools having Ph.D Programme in our campus were the participants. The participants assembled in Thiruchitrambalam Auditorium at 09:30 am and the event commenced at 10:00 am. Our host for the day, Ms. K. Gowri, Research Scholar from the Department of English greeted the gathering and invited Mrs. Revathy, Research Scholar from the Department of Zoology to begin the day by invoking god's presence through a prayer song. The participants and the staff were formally welcomed by our moderator.

PRAYER SONG BY MRS. REVATHY

The host of the event introduced the organizing team: Ms. Aparnapreethi, Research Scholar from the Department of Biochemistry and Biotechnology, along with Ms. S. S. Mageswari, Research Scholar from the Department of Commerce were the Quiz Masters; Ms. M. Haritha, Research Scholar from the Department of Botany and Mrs. Deslit Devid, Research Scholar from the Department of Commerce were the Quiz Appraisers. Prizes and awards were distributed by Ms. K. Thrisha, Research Scholar from the Department of Chemistry and Ms. M. S. Priyadharshini, Research Scholar from the Department of Biochemistry and Biotechnology.

INTRODUCING THE ORGANIZING TEAM

The moderator for the preliminary round was our Quiz Master, Ms. S. S. Mageswari. Around 318 contestants had taken up this preliminary round through their electronic gadgets, logging in to the website 'Quizziz.com' and entering the code '75643250'. A set of 25 multiple choice questions were given to every participant, with a specific time for each question. The scores in percentage were intimated to each contestant individually after attending all the questions. The quiz mode got geared up when the top 24 participants were announced through the preliminary round with their names and scores displayed on the digital wall.

PARICIPANTS ATTENDING THE PRILIMINARY ROUND

The top 24 contestants' names were called out and they were asked to come to the dias. On their way up the stage, the contestants were asked to pick their lot numbers from 1 to 12, which were of two sets to pair up the participants. Out of the 24 contestants, four were postgraduate students and the rest 20 were research scholars. As the lot numbers were called out, the contestants paired up and were given team names that represented a scientist each. The team number, its name and the contestants are given below.

At 10:45 am, the battle of knowledge among the 12 teams began with Ms. R. Aparnapreethi our Quiz Master as the moderator. Our moderator for round – 1 briefed the contestants on the general rules for the quiz. And the rules were:

1. Base of 100 points were allotted to each team.
2. Round – 1, an easy round where all the 12 teams were given three questions, which scored 10 points each. There were no negative points or pass-on questions in this round.
3. Round – 2, a picture and topic quiz with two questions for a team and each question was scored with 20 points. This round had a pass-on option, where the team answering the pass-on question was given a bonus of five points and a minus of 10 points each for every wrong answer. Here, only eight teams were to qualify for the next round.

4. Round – 3, a timer round with two questions each for a team and each question was scored with 30 points with no negative points and no pass-on option. From this round, out of eight teams, four teams got qualified to the finals.
5. Round – 4, the finale, a nut cracking 50/50 round with two questions each for a team scored 50 points each. For every wrong answer, there was a minus of 50 points. In case the team is unable to answer, the contestants can seek their lifeline of help from the Quiz Master for clues. A minus of 20 points for usage of each lifeline.
6. The team scoring the highest points was the winner and the scoring given by the Quiz Appraisers was the final.

ALL THE 12 TEAMS SET FOR THE BATTLE

Round – 1 was named 'Cerebral Challenge' with three sets of 12 questions for each team. The first set of questions was a cakewalk for all the teams. In set two, team 6 got their question answered wrong and in set three, team 4, 5, 6 and 12 too got their answers incorrect. The scores were summed up and Ms. M. Haritha our Quiz Appraiser announced the scores of round – 1. In the meantime, there were general questions put up for the audience. People who answered right for each question were given a complimentary as a token of appreciation.

Then round – 2 commenced with Ms. S. S. Mageswari as the commentator. As described earlier, it was a picture and topic quiz named as 'Connections'. In the first set of questions, two pictures were projected and from those pictures, the team had to identify the terms. The audience prompted the answer for the question given to team 5 and so another set of pictures were projected to them at the end of set one questions. In the same set, team 6 got their answer incorrect and their question was passed on to the audience. Team 12 again got their answer incorrect; their question was passed on to Team 1 and they answered it right and got a bonus of 5 points.

QUIZ MASTERS CONDUCTING ROUND – 2 'CONNECTIONS'

Set two pictures given for identification were logos related to journal and publication ethics. Team 3 could not identify their picture, it was passed on to team 4 and then to the audience. Team 6, 10 and 12 were also unable to identify their logos and the pictures for identification which was passed on to the next team and then to the audience. Again it was the Quiz time for the audience, where ten questions were asked by the host and for every person answering the question right got a token of encouragement. Mean while, our Quiz Appraisers summed up their scores and Mrs. Deslit Devid our Quiz Appraiser announced the elimination of the four teams by announcing the scores of the other eight teams.

Round – 3 was a round of speed and accuracy named 'Rapid Fire Round' where the limitation of time was 60 seconds with our Quiz Master Ms. R. Aparnapreethi. In set one teams 1, 2, 4, 5, 7, 8 and 9 answered their question right with the time of 46, 51, 38, 36, 42, 51 and 49 seconds respectively, whereas team 11 answered their question in 34 seconds and got it incorrect. Likewise in set two, team 4, 5, 7, 8, 9 and 11 answered their question within the time of 38, 51, 36, 42, 49 and 46 seconds each. But, team 1 and 2 got their answers wrong within the time of 46 and 53 seconds each. It was time for totaling the scores and so the audiences were engaged by our host with fun facts and rudimentary questions. At the end of scoring, the Quiz Appraisers announced that there has been a tie of scores between three teams, team 2, 5 and 8. The tie breaker round had three questions from which first and third question were answered by team 2, hard earning their ticket to the finale, whereas team 5 answered the second question, team 8 did not answer any of it and got disqualified from entering round – 4.

8	Albert Einstein	200	-	-	-	200

With great thrills down the spine, round – 4, the finale started at 12:10 pm Ms. S. S. Mageswari our Quiz Master as the moderator with team 2, 4, 5 and 9. It was a strategic, risk taking and speedy answering round named 'Jackpot'. For the first set, team 2 and 4 answered their questions wrong and there was a deduction of 50 points from their scores. But team 5 and 9, answered their questions right and got an addition of 50 points each. In the second set of questions, team 2, 5 and 9 used their life line of seeking help from the Quiz Master and got 20 point reduced and team 5 answered their question incorrect with again a minus of 50 points.

Before heading towards the score board, the audience were requested to share their feedback regarding the Quiz. One among the audience stated that the sessions were well organized and the event went on smooth. But there were few repetitive questions in the quiz that were asked in the preliminary round and she said it would have been better if the repetition was avoided. Our Director and Dean of Research and Development Dr. P. Lalitha stated to the query that the questions were repeated intentionally to give weightage to the process of learning for the 97% of the questions that were either not answered or answered incorrect. The repetitive questions were included to create unintentional process of understanding and to improvise the skill of learning for the contestants as well as the audience. In continuation to this, Ma'am also rendered a formal vote of thanks to all the Deans and Deputy Deans, who graced the event along with the organizers who rendered hands in the smooth conducting of the program. At last, our Quiz Masters along with our Dean of R and D announced the winners of the event.
