Report

The School of Arts and Social Sciences at Avinashilingam Institute for Home Science and Higher Education for Women organized a guest lecture on "Journal Selection for Quality Publication" on March 1, 2024 from 3:30 PM to 4:30 PM in the Hi-Tech Seminar Hall.

The event was presided over by Dr. Shobhana Kokkadan, Dean of the School of Arts and Social Sciences. The special lecture was delivered by Dr. P. Lalitha, Professor and Director In-charge of the Research and Development Cell at the institute.

The guest lecture aimed to provide insights and guidance to faculty members and research scholars on selecting appropriate journals for publishing their research work. It covered various aspects such as:

- ✚ Identifying reputable and high-impact journals in specific research domains
- ✚ Understanding journal selection criteria, including indexing, impact factor, and peer-review process
- ✚ Strategies for improving the chances of manuscript acceptance in quality journals
- ✚ Ethical considerations in journal selection and publication

The event was well-attended by faculty members and research scholars from the School of Arts and Social Sciences and other departments of the institute. The interactive session allowed participants to raise questions and engage in discussions with the expert speaker.

The guest lecture was organized as part of the institute's efforts to promote quality research and encourage faculty members and research scholars to publish their work in reputable journals. It provided valuable insights and practical tips to help attendees navigate the complex landscape of journal selection and increase their chances of successful publication.
