Report

A Workshop on "Academic writing for research scholars" was organized by the Directorate of Research and Development (DORD) from 25.05.2022 to 27.05.2022 at the academic council hall of the institution.

Dr.P.Lalitha, Dean Research and Development conducted the workshop for research scholars of the Departments of Food science and nutrition, Human Development, Textile and Clothing and Biochemistry of our Institution. The first day (25.05.2022) of the workshop started with the inaugural address by Vice-Chancellor madam, Dr.V.Bharathi Harishankar. She highlighted about the importance of quality writing. Her energetic words motivated all the PhD scholars to be more focused during the session.

The resource person for the workshop was Dr. Aruna Dhathathreyan, an Emeritus Scientist and Professor of Central Leather Research Institute (CSIR) started her session by elaborating on the usage of the language as a tool of communication. She also spoke about the misconception of academic writing and made the session more interactive. 'Everybody gets educated but nobody communicates'- by quoting this Dr.Aruna explained why there is a need to improve our skills in academic writing. Communication is important in every field and publishing articles in journals is the best way to communicate in an academic field. Our research mentor also taught us about 3 min thesis contest and the importance of writing a Laboratory notebook every day which will improve our vocabulary skills and concise writing. She concluded the session with the process of publication and audience based quality writing. The second day and Third day (26.05.2022-27.05.2022) of the workshop began with a keynote address by Prof. Dr.Sylvia Subapriya, Head of the Department of Food Science and Nutrition Avinashilingam Institute For Home Science and Higher Education. Dr. Aruna Dhathathreyan gave a resourceful lecture on "Academic Writing- What it means, Why it matters and How is it done?", as to what is expected in scientific writing, the do's don't's of academic writing, requisites for good quality writing and madam in her talk cited many examples. The Lecture was Followed by an Interaction Session. The Session ended with vote of Thanks by a Scholar.
